Wearing a clean uniform that fits properly (shirts should be long enough to stay tucked) and follows the school's policy is important to building individual and school pride. Please pay particular attention to shoes. We have included a pictorial shoe guide to assist you.

There will be times when we require students to wear a "formal school uniform". This will be the case for our next Awards Assembly on February 23rd and for our Breakfast with the Saints on April 13th. Please see below to be sure you have all of the components of the formal school uniform.

Hemos incluido una guía ilustrada de calzado para ayudarlo.*

*Habrà ocasiones en que requeriremos que los estudiantes usen un "uniforme escolar formal". ### Inclement Weather Tardy Policy

Please know that safety is our first priority on inclement weather days. Being a regional school, the weather conditions can vary greatly for our families as some travel from Chesterfield, Goochland, Ashland, Varina, etc. If school is in session and you believe travel to school from your area is not safe, please know that we do not generally count tardies until after 10am on such days.

Reglamento para días con clima inclemente y sobre los retardos

#GiveLove

Did you know? All Saints is running a #GiveLove campaign this year headed by Mrs. Cash and the Speak Up Club. Below are some of the things the group has accomplished this year. There will be more to come in the second semester! We hope you will partner with the school and encourage your child to Give Love by speaking up against meanness towards others and looking for ways to be kind to others.

- Each homeroom created a banner to promote kindness and acceptance and these banners are displayed on our stairwell steps.
- Each homeroom did a project to express love to others during Advent.
- Our school counselor, Mr. Burgess, has conducted classroom lessons on the importance and "how to" of speaking up against meanness and bullying.
- Students have just begun to watch weekly videos on speak up strategies.
- Student representatives in grades 7 and 8 attended a Prejudice Awareness Workshop and are sharing ideas learned with the Speak Up Club.
- Speak Up Club is partnering with The Richmond Center for Peace Education for training on promoting peace in school and peer mediation.
- The Richmond Center for Peace Education is leading student training on peace promotion to our Speak Up Club and Prejudice Awareness Group members.
- Our 5th graders attended the Compassion Experience last week where they learned how organizations and individuals can make a difference for children in developing countries.
- Our SGA and Speak Up Club leaders are encouraging all students to get involved in our community service efforts through posters and special announcements.

#Da amor

¿Sabías qué? Todos los Santos está realizando una campaña llamada DaAmor este año encabezada por la Sra. Cash y el Speak Up Club. A continuación se encuentran algunas de las cosas que el grupo ha logrado este año. ¡Habrá más por venir en el segundo semestre! Esperamos que se asocie con la escuela y aliente a su hijo a DaAmor al hablar en contra de la mezquindad con los demás y buscar maneras de ser amable.

- Cada salón de clase creó una pancarta para promover la bondad y la aceptación, y estas pancartas se muestran en los escalones de nuestras escaleras.
- Cada aula hizo un proyecto para expresar amor a otros durante el Adviento.
- Nuestro consejero escolar, el Sr. Burgess, ha impartido lecciones en el salón sobre la importancia y el "cómo" de hablar en contra de la mezquindad y la intimidación.
- Los estudiantes acaban de comenzar a ver videos semanales sobre estrategias de como hablar sobre estos temas.
- Los representantes estudiantiles en los grados 7 y 8 asistieron a un Taller de conciencia sobre los prejuicios y comparten sus ideas aprendidas con el Speak Up Club.
- El Speak Up Club está colaborando con The Richmond Center for Peace Education para capacitarse en la promoción de la paz en la escuela y la mediación entre compañeros.
- El Centro de Richmond para la Educación esta capacitando a los estudiantes en el entrenamiento sobre como promover la paz a los miembros del Club Speak Up y Prejudice Awareness Group.
- Nuestros alumnos de 5º grado asistieron a Compassion Experience la semana pasada, donde aprendieron cómo las organizaciones y las personas pueden marcar la diferencia para los niños de los países en desarrollo.
- Nuestros líderes SGA y Speak Up Club están alentando a todos los estudiantes a involucrarse en nuestros esfuerzos de servicio comunitario a través de carteles y anuncios especiales.
